

Monday 16 – Thursday 19 March 2020

9 am – 4 pm

The venue for your workshop will be advised in February 2020.
All workshops are held in Halls Gap. Morning tea and lunch are provided in your class room.

SPIN A YARN, WEAVE A TALE

Tutor: Vicki Essig

Student requirement list

Name tag

Coffee mug

Working with mulberry paper explore the prospects of shifu and weaving. This class will investigate the traditional making of thread from paper. Using this created yarn consider simple, yet personal weaving possibilities. This workshop will enable you to literally and figuratively put our own story into our artistic process.

- cutting mat
- exacto
- permanent markers, or ink
- metal ruler
- pencil
- personal small pieces of cloth, yarn, paper, plant material etc for weaving along side the shifu

Optional

- reading glasses or handsfree magnifying glass

- Materials fee: to be paid in cash on the first day of the workshop $30