MATERIAL LIST

Pastels – bring whatever you have. A set of 60 would be the minimum required. Some key colours are found in my seascape set of unison pastels. See below image. You can see my sets on my website CLICK HERE

If you have no pastels and want to hire a set from me for $15 per day just let me know and I will reserve a set for you.

Paper – Art Spectrum colourfix original

- Storm Blue – 2 x A3 size (or a full sheet cut in half). Terracotta – 1 x A3 size (or a half sheet) White – 2 x A3 size. (or half sheet) Fresh Grey 1 x half sheet.
- Willow Charcoal
- Paper Towel
- old brush to remove pastel.
- Backing Board: well-padded and bigger than your paper with Bull Dog clips.
- Easel: standing or table.
- Watercolours for underpainting. Large pallet with tubes works well. Small pans of colour will not be enough. If you don't have watercolours you can use mine.
- Drop sheet.
- Kneadable eraser.
- Apron – optional
- Reference material: Bring your own reference of seascapes that you love. I will supply the reference for practice ones but you will have a project day to work on what you like.

Any question just ask. Tricia artist@taylorart.com.au

These are seascape colours that add to your usual pastel basics. You can see a lot of blues and greens but pinks and violets also. A good tonal range is the important part rather than lots of colours.

I do not expect everyone to buy a lot of pastels but use what they have and see what is missing. Any questions just ask.
