WATERLESS LITHOGRAPHY WITH COLLAGRAPH

Tutor: Annie Day & Robin Ezra: THE PRINTMAKING SISTERS

Materials list

- Plastic to cover your table, Coffee mug and name tag

We want this to be a success for you so please think about your imagery well beforehand and come prepared with several small images using plenty of tone. Small sketches, pictures cut from magazines, images from the internet – all can be adapted for your own use. Most plates will be around 10 X 15cms

As part of the course we do this amazing technique, Image transfer, please send me a black and white image with no tone and I will prepare an image transfer annieday@optusnet.com.au see below how Mark, a previous student, made a transfer plate from his drawing and note how good the the final print looked with the addition of a collagraph plate

If you have a portable press, please bring it along.
