

Grampians Brushes: set in Halls Gap in the stunning Grampians National Park; the annual workshop program for painters and print makers provides an opportunity for participation in two, four or six days workshops with some of Australia's best artists and tutors for introduction level to experienced artists.

Each year sees some of your favourite tutors return along with new tutors offering workshops to entice you to explore different mediums, techniques and processes.

You have the option of 2 day workshop: 10 Saturday – 11 Sunday, 4 day workshop: 12 Monday – 15 Thursday and 6 day workshops: 10 Saturday – 15 Thursday September 2022. Workshops run 9 am – 4 pm. Morning tea and lunch are provided at your workshop.

Book your own accommodation in Halls Gap. There are many styles and levels to choose from. Our website has a list of some of the accommodation options in Halls Gap and the places listed do offer a discount to Grampians Brushes participants.

Halls Gap has a wide range of evening meal options, from cafes to more sophisticated restaurants. There is a small supermarket with good supplies if you are choosing to self-cater. Local wineries have available award-winning wines for your enjoyment.

Join other students and tutors for evening meals, exhibitions, bushwalks and more. A full program of activities will be forwarded to enrolled participants in August. Partners, family and friends are welcome at all evening activities. As part of our opening night there is an artist market, and at the GrampianArts Market Place situated at the Halls Gap Centenary Halls Seniors Art Supplies will be selling specialist art supplies, Dairing selling speciality papers and textiles, Red Rock Books with art books and Fibreworks hand dyed fibres.

Grampians Brushes is a project of GrampianArts, a not-for-profit organisation that strives to provide opportunities for artists to extend their skills and showcase their work.

Don't miss this opportunity to work with wonderful and inspiring tutors.

6 Day | Saturday 10 – Thursday 15 September 2022

COLLAGRAPHS – SOLD OUT

Over six days, Basil Hall will introduce techniques for creating beautiful prints using collagraph plates. Collagraphs are usually printed from an inexpensive matrix made of cut, modelled and textured card, ply or masonite, rather than the metal plates traditionally used in etching. Collagraph prints are inked up and printed in a similar way to etching plates and look every bit as crisp and dynamic as their more famous counterparts.

The workshop will involve looking at ways in which the plates can be built up or carved into to create the lines, tones and textures you want in your finished print. Basil will demonstrate different intaglio and relief printing techniques and participants will be able to proof and print their images in full colour. This will include Basil's chine collé pigment technique, a la poupée inking, viscosity over-rolls and multi-plate colour printing. Bring your imagination and a sense of adventure. Six fun days of cutting, gouging, peeling, varnishing, sanding, collaging, inking and rolling up await you. Intermediate
